Remarks

Experience a luxurious downtown Sarasota lifestyle in the highly coveted Bay Plaza condominium—with its timeless architectural appeal designed by renowned architect Tim Siebert. This location—this building—has everything one needs to immediately enjoy the convenience of downtown living. Sarasota is well-known as the cultural and creative coast of Florida. When you choose to live at Bay Plaza you are steps from enjoying performances by the Sarasota Opera or shows at one of Florida Studio Theater's 5 stages, or for intellectual stimulation on global issues, there is SILL, Sarasota Institute for Lifetime Learning. Enjoy numerous restaurants and cafes with outdoor dining availability—all within steps of your front door. This handsomely renovated 2nd floor residence offers delicate views of Sarasota Bay through the airy structure of Shady Lady black olive trees lining the street below. The unit 204's interior vibe is coastal contemporary, with shiplap walls and lighted insets, light wood-grained vinyl flooring throughout, LED lighting, ceiling fans and generous storage. The recent installation of new hurricane impact sliding doors, as well as windows, will provide peace of mind during inclement weather. You will appreciate the brightly updated kitchen with quartzite counters and
